PROCLAMATION

MONTGOMERY COUNTY BLACK LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

The District Attorney of Montgomery County congratulates the Montgomery County Black Law Enforcement Officers Association (MCBLEOA) members for their outstanding efforts. May your organization continue to recruit, mentor and tutor young men and women to prepare them for service in law enforcement careers.

The MCBLEOA has assisted in organizing the Abington Police Athletic League, participated in the Citizens and Police Together program, works with the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission, creates workshops to deter Crimes Against the Elderly, Identity Theft and Drug Abuse, and presents programs for school districts and colleges promoting minority involvement within the legal community.

Your dedicated services to law enforcement and the citizens of Montgomery County over the past twenty years has established and enhanced relationships throughout all of our diverse communities. For this you are all to be commended.

Presented this 27th day of February 2010.
